247,

Room 413, State House,
Boston, May 17, 1927.

Mr. L. W. D. Eldredge,

South Chatham, Mass.

Dear Sir:

The Department of Public Works, Division of Highways, under date of April 20, 1927, voted to abandon to you a parcel of land previously taken or acquired for State highway purposes in the town of Chatham. In the order of abandonment which has been recorded in the Registry of Deeds of Barnstable County, at Barnstable, on May 10, 1927, said parcel of land is referred to and described as follows (the stations mentioned being points on the base line of location shown on the plan filed with the order of taking in the Registry of Deeds):

Parcel 00. To L.W.D. ELDREDGE. A parcel of land on the southeasterly side of Main Street, so-called, between stations 230+41 and 232+06.67, bounded as follows: southeasterly by southeasterly location line of the present State highway layout for about 181 feet; northwesterly by the southeasterly location line of the aforesaid alteration for about 189 feet; easterly by the property of Mercellia E. Kelley for about 14 feet; containing about 938 square feet.

Yours truly,
